At the “A Couple’s Journey,” workshop, you will discover how:

- three invisible connectors become palpable and strengthen your bond
- conflict is a friend and a launching pad for growth
- to have authentic impactful conversations, that move you from automatic, unconscious re-activity, to intentional, conscious action

“The most important thing we learned is that we are each responsible for the nurturance of the sacred space, and that the quality and shape of that space evolves, grows and deepens as we complete the encounter. We left the seminar filled with joy, energy, and possibility.”

~Skip & Abigail
